

Brenda Hughes Stevens

December 29, 1948 - August 14, 2007

CONWAY...Mrs. Brenda Hughes Stevens, age 58, of the Shell Community, passed away Tuesday, August 14, 2007 at Loris Community Hospital following an illness.

Mrs. Stevens was born December 29, 1948 in Loris a daughter of Amanda Pauline Housand Hughes and the late Rev. Thomas Hughes. She was a member of Mt. Vernon Baptist Church where she was also a member of the WMU and the Ladies Sunday School Class. Mrs. Stevens was a former employee of Conway Mills. She was a loving wife, mother, and grandmother. She was predeceased by three brothers: Leniford Hughes, Wendell Hughes, and Douglas Hughes; and one brother-in-law: L.C. Shannon.

Survivors in addition to her mother, Pauline Hughes of Loris, include her husband: Bobby H. Stevens of the home; four children: Freddy Boone of Loris, Pamela Allen and her husband Bill, Candy Chestnut and her husband Brian, and Bobby Thomas Stevens and his wife Shannon all of Conway; three brothers: Wayne Hughes and his wife Clara of Conway, Hal Hughes and his wife Ann of Loris, and Ricky Hughes and his wife Beth of Conway; one sister: Shirley Shannon of Loris; five grandchildren: Allison Allen, Jonathan Stevens, Cory Hodges, Tanner Chestnut, and Zachary Chestnut; three sisters-in-law: Doris Hughes of Georgia, Jeanette Hughes, and Anna Hughes both of Loris; and many nieces and nephews.

The family will receive friends Thursday, August 16, 2007 from 7-9 PM at Ward Funeral Home in Loris.

Funeral services will be held 11:00 AM Friday, August 17, 2007 from the Mt. Vernon Baptist Church with Rev. Rory Thigpen, Rev. Earl Elvis, and Rev. Bill Thompson officiating. Burial will follow in the Stevens Cemetery.

Memorials may be sent to the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, 215 East Bay Street, Suite 205-B, Charleston, SC 29401.

Ward Funeral Home of Loris, 756-9273, is serving the family.