“ So much love sent to my Aunt Faye. I grew up going to her house often with my Nana (Aunt Faye’s older sister, Linda). Although I personally don’t remember this memory, she sure reminded me often of when I was very small and wouldn’t come out of the McDonalds pay area so she had to climb in and get me. She was a fun spirited person and I enjoyed when we would see eachother. Now she is at peace, I know she is spending all the time with Grandma, Papa, Nana, and especially her one true love Uncle Gary. So many hugs to Christy and the sisters ❤️

Christie, Ann, Sue, and Beth. You all are in Lisa and my prayers. Gary and Faye were some of our best friends. We were pretty much family. We spent many a time over our years in the Air Force together and the holidays or just dropping in to visit. All good times. We will deeply miss her.

“ Faye was much more than my sister. She was my Best friend and confidant. Everyone said we looked alike lol although Faye always said she was the "prettiest ". We shared so many fun trips, times of joy and times of sadness. I always knew I could count on her for everything 😊
