“ I was heart broken to hear Brenda had passed. Not for her, she is ecstatic and feeling wonderful in the presence of the Lord, but for us who will miss her dear friendship and love. I look forward to singing God's praises with her again in Heaven as we did in choir. Come quickly Jesus! Rodney, I will be praying for you and hope to see you more. Pam Treadaway

“ My condolences and sincerest thoughts and prayers are with All the family now. Mrs. Brenda was a part of my life since I can remember. Some of my fondest memories of growing up included her singing in the Choir at my home church, teaching Sunday School and Bible School in the Summer. God truly gained an Angel when he took her home. “ Rodney, Susan, Sherrell, Janice & family. I lit a yellow candle in memory of Brenda because it reminds me of gold and I know Brenda is walking the streets of gold in heaven with her Lord. She is no longer struggling and at peace. I know this leaves all of you to deal with your loss but I know how strong your faith is and I know God will never leave any of you and will give you the strength and comfort you need. Praying for each of you.

Rodney, Susan, Sherrell, Janice, and all of the nieces and nephews who loved Brenda so much. My heart is heavy for all of you. She was a very special lady and friend like no other. I have so many wonderful memories of our times together. She was a second mother to my son and he loved her deeply. It’s sad how time and life’s changes tend to separate us from the people in our lives who grounded us in God’s love. Even though we drift apart, God keep us close in our hearts. Brenda is with Stephen and Matthew now, and you will one day all be together to celebrate family once again.I
