“ My mother gave me so many wonderful memories over the years but the best thing she taught me was how to be the mother that I am today. I will never forget her love for the church, family and friends, any type of sports, and of course her love for shopping. I love you but I am so happy that you are in a better place watching down over us.

“ I didn't know Brenda, but I know her daughter, Maria. The way Maria lives her life and raises her daughters is great tribute to the mother who raised her.
