“ I became a friend with Brian when I would come to Zaxby's for lunch. We was a great guy and he gave my son his first job when he moved down to Calabash, NC in April 2011. My son thought alot of Brian and when my husband finally met Brian, they would always have fun when we came there to eat. Brian was a great guy and I will miss him. God bless you all I know this is a real shock, but he is resting peacefully..

“ We are so stunned by the news of Brian's passing that I hardly know what to say. I just want Sylvia and her entire family to know that they are in our prayers. We know that you will get through this even though it hurts so terribly and that soon you will be able to remember what a loving and cherished son and brother Brian was.

“ Sylvia and family, I am truly sorry for your loss and I hope you receive comfort from our maker, Jesus Christ. Having lost a daughter myself a couple of years ago, I share your loss. I think of you as a sister, Sylvia, having known you for so many years and although we do not keep in touch, I love you like family. I pray for you and your family and hope for you and yours, comfort and peace at this time. Always, a friend, Charlie Scarborough
