“ Brian was one of the sweetest men I've known. He always had the biggest heart. I will never forget the man I met while working at Quincys. Who took me fishing and cooked me the best meals I've ever had and the one that has always kept a special place in my heart.

“ I played Little League football with Brian during our childhood in Bedford. He was a great team mate and an even better friend. I ran into him many years ago while vacationing in Myrtle Beach and it seemed like old times again. RIP Brian and God Bless.

“ We are so sorry for your loss. Brian was such a kind person. I remember summers at Granny's house when Kellie and Brian would visit. Brian was always willing to play with us "girls" but he preferred to hang out with Rusty. I pray for God to comfort you.

God bless the family that is left behind, for now. You will all reunite with him at God's will. His heart was right - and went to be with his angel, his dad, on Father's Day. Try to remember he is closer to you now than he ever was in the human shell. Continue to love and pray for him. I will continue to pray for you all. It isn't easy - and my heart breaks for any mother who loses a child. All I know is that God is good, and ever present, may his grace and light wrap you in warmth of comfort in the days that lay before you all. Much love to my friend and family, Angela. God will give you the strength you need - and you already know that - it's just time to re-member that. God Bless.
