“ The day we all dressed up and you did the the crazy ribbon dance, sleepovers in Courtney's room at grandmas, when you used to try and cuddle with me, when you tried to kiss me while making a fish face, how you used to call me Crayola, when you texted me randomly, getting so excited when I heard you were coming for a visit, when you would actually let me brush your hair, christmas shopping at the dollar store, how you used to follow me around, when you used to call me your favorite cousin even though you said it to all of us.

Brittney,

The best and funniest memory I have of you is when I was babysitting. You and your cousins, Kayla, Aundrey and Kevin dressed up and put on a show with ribbons on a stick. All of the cousins including the boys were graceful and funny. You my dear whipped that thing around your head and in the air. We were all hysterical because you were so rough with it. I found the picture but I do not know how to post it.

Love you always Brittney, you will be missed, Aunt Barbara Savage
