“ Dear Loretta, Rita and I were so sorry to hear of Bruce's passing. Please know that he was a dear dear friend to us. We were so glad that he stopped to see us on his last visit to Dayton. I know that we will never have neighbors like you were and we still wish you were here. Bruce and I had a lot of talks over the years as we were working outside on the yards etc;.I will always think of you both as the years continue to go by. Lots of love to you !!##imported-begin##Bob and Rita Agne##imported-end##

“ From the daughter of Bill Langford (Billie) son of Joe & Elva Ramsey Langford. I am Bill's daughter - Sheila - and I just wanted to pass on our sympathy to the family. My dad passed away 3 1/2 years ago - and he always kept in contact and kept me posted on the family. Today I received an e-mail from our cousin Helen Stewart informing us of his death. I will forward the note on to my Aunt's - Dad's sisters - Mary, Jean, Elva Mae, & Uncle Joe. We have traveled before in the Murrells Inlet area - beautiful country. Sincerely, Dr. Bruce & Sheila MacMurray - Anderson, IN###imported-begin##SHEILA MACMURRAY###imported-end##

“ Our hearts are with you in this time of sorrow in your loss of Bruce. I remember the many good times that we had when Bruce would come and spent the summers at Mama @ Papa Ramsey house. He would always come and stay a week or so with us. He seemed to really enjoy coming to Tenn. when he could. Our love and prayers go out to you and your girls. May God bless you in this time of sorrw. Richatd @ Francesa###imported-begin##Richard Wilmoth###imported-end##
