“ Bryan was loved , admired , and respected by many . Working with him and getting to know him was my honor & privilege . I'm sure Heaven will be getting a new paint job as he has the angels hop to it issuing crisp Marine commands to speed the job along . Rest well , my friend .

“ My heartfelt sympathy is extended to your family. I remember Bryan and Ryan as little boys at Waccamaw Elem. They have always been friends with my son, Chris King. I remember them going into the Marines and have followed them through the years (through Chris). I prayed so often for Bryan while he was so sick. I know some of the loss you feel as my husband passed from covid last Sept. I pray for you to receive God's strength

“ Kelley, Ryan, Allyson, Bobby, Bobbie Jo, and Bryan's entire family - no one but you understands the loss you feel right now. I pray your faith and your family bond will get you through these trying, difficult times, and I'm calling on the strength of God to carry you through. Although Bryan was taken way too soon, he has left a lasting legacy through the memories you carry. Please accept my most sincere condolences.
