“ From the students of SJHS: In this sad time of loss, i want to remember Caleb and how he changed alot of peoples lifes, In the hallways Celeb was always smiling, laughing and helping other people out. When i say this i think i speak for everyone at St. James, Caleb was a enlighting spirit, you never saw him down or not have a smile on his face, he was always cheerful and ready to learn. When i think of Caleb i will ALWAYS remember his bright smile and warm heart. Caleb was truly a angel and he opend mine and many others eyes to see that there are angels. “ Berry, Lynne, Avery and Beck, Our thoughts and prayers are with your family. We are thankful for the times we spend with Caleb and it was a joy to see him grow up and become a young man. His friendly and warm smile will be missed, his love for all animals never forgotten. He left a long lasting impression on us and our children and we will remember him the way we knew him: A fun loving friend. May god bless your family.
