“ Cameron was a colleague and a friend. He was a tremendous professional inspiration to me, and I considered him a personal friend, While in Charleston, SC visiting my daughter and family, Lynn and his open invitation would draw us to Conway to have a visit. Always felt so welcome and not just because of Lynn's amazing Chicken salad. I will never forget our fond memories of Cameron.

“ We are deeply saddened and heart broken by the loss of Cameron. He was a wonderful, kind and caring man. Always had a smile on his face. His stories were fascinating and funny. My children adored him! We were so lucky to have known you! He will live forever in our hearts! You are a thousand winds that blow, you are the diamond's gift of snow, you are the sunlight on a ripened grain and you are the soft stars that shine at night. We love and miss you Cameron. May you Rest In Peace.
