“ To the Ahalt Family, It has been my extreme privilege to be Cameron's Assistant Scout Master. Cameron was not only willing to learn, but he was eager to teach as well. He had the unique ability to help others without coming on too strong as most kids do. As we celebrate his life, know that Cameron continues to teach as the boys of Troop 360 now learn how to deal with the realities of life, loss and what it means to truly honor the memory of a fallen comrade. There will always be a reserved seat at every Scout meeting and camp-out in Cameron's honor. God Bless, you are in our prayers, Scott, Lisa, Andrew & Zane Cook##imported-begin##Scott, Lisa, Andrew & Zane Cook##imported-end##

“ Sean, Kristy, Brandon & family, We were so heartbroken to hear about Cameron's passing. Rebecca, Michael and Matthew have fond memories of Prentice Court and Cameron is a big part of those memories. You all are in our thoughts and prayers and I hope you can find strength in all of your happy memories. This poem helps me rememeber our loved ones are always near, and I hope it brings you comfort as well. I'M STILL HERE Please don't mourn for me, I'm still here though you don't see. I'm right by your side each night and day, and within your heart I long to stay. My body is gone, but I'm always near. I'm everything you feel, see or hear. My spirit is free, but I'll never depart, as long as you keep me alive in your heart. I'll never wonder out of your sight, I'm the brightest star on a summer night. I'll never be beyond your reach, I'm the warm moist sand when you're at the beach. I'm the colorful leaves when fall comes around, and the pure white snow that blankets the ground. I'm the beautiful flowers for which you're so fond, the clear cool water in a quiet pond. I'm the first bright blossom that you'll see in the spring, the first warm raindrop that April will bring. I'm the first ray of light when the sun starts to shine, and you'll see that the face in the moon is mine. When you start thinking there's no one to love you, you can talk to me through the Lord above you. I'll whisper my answer through the leaves on the trees, and you'll feel my presence in a soft summer breeze. I'm the hot salty tears that flow when you weep, and beautiful dreams that come while you sleep. I'm the smile you see on a baby's face. Just look for me, I'M EVERYPLACE. “ Cameron and your entire family are in our daily thoughts and prayers. The night of the camp out he told Mitch that those kind of events were what he had worked for and that it was what scouting was all about. He was truly expressing his excitement over being a boyscout and told Mitch to tell Gavin he would really enjoy bridging over. He will be missed but his encouraging words will live on.##imported-begin##Mitch,Kristina,Spencer and Gavin Chilton##imported-end##

“Kristi and Sean, Your family has been in my fervent prayers. We're so sorry for the loss of Cameron. He will be missed by Hank and the entire troop. The following poem comforted a friend of mine whose son died recently in a car accident, I hope it comforts you: He Only Took My Hand Last night while I was trying to sleep, my son's voice did I hear. I opened my eyes and looked around, but he did not appear. He said "Mom, you've got to listen, You've got to understand, God didn't take me away from you, he only took my hand. When I called out in pain that day, the moment that I died, He reached down and took my hand and pulled me to His side. He pulled me up and saved me from the misery and pain. My body was hurt so badly, I could never be the same. My search is really over now, I've found happiness within, all the answers to my empty dreams and all that might have been. I love you, Mom, and miss you so, and I'll always be nearby. My body's gone forever, but my spirit will never die. And so, you must all go on now, and live and understand... God did not take me from you, He only took my hand."
