“ Knowing Jeff, even for just a short while, was a gift. As we read all the comments left so far, the sincerity reaches out to all of us who knew him. His talents are now being enjoyed in Heaven.

“ Karen, even though we only knew you in Sunday School for a short time in Wilmington, we always enjoyed being with you. Please know how sorry we were to hear of your loss. May the knowledge that Jeff is with Jesus and you will see him again comfort you during these difficult days.

“ Jeff was a dear friend who I let get away from my life, and for that I am truly sorry. He had a positive disposition that extended to all his many friends. We laughed about his Triumph two seater that he adored and sunk his energy and money into. He could have become a cartoonist, artist illustrator. We double dated at Sullins and VIC when the new school years started. The most congenial friend I ever had. I waited too long to reconnect. I feel an awful loss.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort from your memories, as well as God's word the bible. Why do people we love die? Romans 5:12 says: "That is why, just as through one man (Adam) sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned." How loving of God to promise what is found at Revelation 21:4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”

“ Crumley Family,
Knowing Jeff as I did I know he's in a better place now and relieved of the problems he has endured for several years. He was the first person I knew in the paper industry and helped me get a job at Frank Parsons paper company back in the early 70's. I'm praying for the family and look forward to seeing him again in Heaven. God Bless you all.

“ Dear Crumley family,
I am very sorry about your loss. The Bible can bring much comfort when dealing with the death of a loved one. God promises a time when he will resurrect all of our dead loved ones. John 5:28,29 speaks of this time when it says "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." Yes, we will be reunited with our dead loved ones. How loving God is!
