“ Brian,

Your farther Carl, such a genuinely kind, caring, and thoughtful person, he really cared about others and always wanted to help them in anyway he could and you could see in his eyes, hear in his voice, and feel that his heart was just filled with much love for his family, your dad was so proud of and just adored each of his children, grand children, and great grand children and made sure everyone was well taken care of all the time... and that smile wow Carl had the best smile on earth, it would light up his whole face and made anyone who was around him feel so good and he passed that smile and kind caring heart on to everyone in his family especially his son Brian who night and day for decades took such great care of his dad which made his father the happiest man ever because he deserved the best and the comforting part is now Carl is walking with the Lord holding his hand and he will take good care of him just like he did for so many for so long!
