“ I met Carl or as I called him "Big Daddy" or "Big Boy" because he was a bear of a man. His physical presence was intimidating but he was a teddy bear and a beautiful person. We met at a small booth I had set up at the North Myrtle Beach Flea Market and became fast and dear friends. Big Daddy would come up every weekend to keep me company and as he would like to say provide security (LOL). On one occasion he invited myself and wife to have the best sausage and peppers in the world that his awesome wife "AJ" makes. From then on we would do lots of things together like go to estate sales and yard sales hunting down items, Carl loved that and always had fun. When business picked up for me I decided to move to a large booth and due a total overhaul, who was there every weekend to help, who else Big Daddy!!! My booth from this day forward will be dedicated to him since he was the one who helped me build it. I was blessed to not only know him but to do lots of fun stuff and spend time with him. He will be missed by me since he would call two or three times a week to see how I was doing. My world we be a little sadder not hearing from my buddy, but I will look forward to seeing you on the other side. Rest in peace my brother! Ralph & Stacy DePinto

“ Carl was one of the most caring people I've ever known. A lifelong friend since kindergarten at Shrub Oak Elementary School, he helped me through some of the toughest times in my life.

I will miss our talks, his sense of humor, his enjoyment of life and knowing he was always there if I needed a shoulder.

Love to his sweet wife, AJ who took such good care of him.

Until we meet again...

I also remember the happiness he found with each new thing he learned to do on his guitar.
