“ I had the honor of taking care of Carol Corbett for a short time at Waccamaw Community Hospital. She is truly an inspiration to all those fighting a battle with cancer. She is the definition of strength and courage, and her love for her sons is immeasurable. I will remember her spirit and optimism and wish her family strength while they cope with their loss. God Bless all of you, you are in my prayers.##imported-begin##Kristy White##imported-end##

“ Dearest Chris & Jon, Assure yourselves that you are both in our thoughts, prayers and especially our hearts at this time. Can't believe that 54yrs. ago we became best friends and still spoke to each other last Sunday. You mom constantly spoke of how very much she loved and worried about you, how grateful she was to have been blessed with you both. Its been a courageous battle and she would have never made it through without your constant care and love. SHE WILL forever remain in your loving hearts. God stay close and Bless you! With loving memories of my dear Carol, Barbara Kovacs Smith##imported-begin##Barbara Smith##imported-end##
