“*Dave the world is diminished because she is gone, but remember, it is still a better place because she was here. She was a special person, someone all will miss. She touched the lives of all those around her with her warmth and caring. Though mere words can never say enough at times like this, please know you're thought of, and your loss is one that many share. With deepest sympathy,
Mike and Chris Kozlowsky*

“Carol was a delight -- her larger-than-life personality surely added to the neighborhood, to the Conway Alive team, and to Conway in general. She will be sorely missed. The neighborhood already seems to have less color...
