“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort from your memories, as well as the comfort found in God's word the bible. Romans 5:12 says, "That is why, just as through one man (Adam) sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned." How loving of God to promise what is found at Revelation 21:4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”

“ Dear Glenn...I was so sorry to learn Carol has passed away. I hope you can take comfort in knowing you did everything possible to help her fight her battle, yet as you said, "There were no winners." Yet you must know you had her longer than you might have if not for you. Carol was such a warm and thoughtful person and will live on in my memory, and I'm sure in yours, with that beautiful smile on her face as she watched you dance the "Chicken Dance" at the Cincinnati Oktoberfest back in '87.

Sincerely,
Aggie Doppes

Glenn -

Please know that you and your family have been in my prayers ever since our phone conversation earlier this week. Again I am sorry that I will not be able to join you Saturday for the celebration service of Carol's life and resurrection, but I pray that you will eventually find peace in the assurance that Carol is now living an everlasting life where there are...no more tears, no more dying, no more mourning, crying or pain....(Rev. 21:4). As well, I hope you can find comfort in the confidence that Carol, most assuredly....fought the good fight, finished the race, and kept the faith.....(2 Timothy 4:7). May peace and comfort and the love of Christ continue to be with you, kind and compassionate servant.
