

Carol Ann Pizirusso

January 19, 1947 - December 26, 2024

Carol “Meme” Pizirusso, 77, passed away peacefully at her home on December 26, 2024, surrounded by the love of her family. Born on January 19, 1947, in Brooklyn, New York, Carol carried the warmth and spirit of her roots with her throughout her life.

Carol was the beloved wife of the late Ralph Pizirusso, with whom she shared many cherished memories. She was a devoted mother to her two daughters, Alethea Immoor and Amy Salerno, and a proud Nana to Claire Immoor and Liliana Salerno, who brought endless joy to her life. Carol is also survived by her loving son-in-law, Kristian Immoor, who she held in high regard.

A woman of many talents, Carol was an avid gardener whose green thumb transformed any patch of earth into a thriving sanctuary of beauty. Her love for nature was matched by her artistic prowess; she was an accomplished painter whose works reflected her creative spirit and deep appreciation for the world around her.

Carol’s kindness, creativity, and strength will be deeply missed by all who knew her. Her family and friends will remember her as a compassionate soul who lived a life full of love and artistry.

A celebration of her life will be held at a later date. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to Tunnel for Towers in her memory, honoring her passion for American veterans meant so much to her life.

“ Many years ago, we were outside, and this couple stopped by to see what we thought about the neighborhood. Meme kept saying that she wanted lots of land where she could get her hands in the dirt and plant plants and flowers. I told her we were retired and supposed to rest, and she assured me that was her relaxation. Ralph, on the other hand, was always busy taking care of the "honey do" list. Once they moved in, we spent lots of time together partying.

We met their beautiful children and grandchildren who they were so proud of and talked about them constantly. We have a special needs child, and I think they adopted him as another grandchild since they always spoiled him. He emailed Meme every day and she would always respond (after gardening or painting).

Meme's passing is hard on so many, but she is back with the love of her life and though she loves her family so, she wanted to be together with Ralph.

So, Meme and Ralph, rest in peace - you're together again!

“ Carol was such a large, happy part of my childhood. Spent many nights having sleepovers with Ali. Pretty sure my fear of balloons started with the dang popping at birthday parties in the foyer, lol. Learning to sing The Rose while Ali played the piano, swimming in the pool and having lunch in the backyard and Carol telling me she would see me in a little while when leaving because Ali and I "were never going to be friends again". She was always right, I was always right back at the house, usually the same day. Will be praying for you and the family, I know you are happy back with Ralph.
