“ So sorry to hear about Carol. I remember Carol as a lot fun in our high school days. She was one of the bunch of 6 of us that ran around together. Sue Seyler Kelley###imported-begin##Sue Kelley###imported-end##

“ Dear Carol, I first fell in love with you as my teacher when Ann and I took Housekeeping Certification classes together and sat in the back ?causing trouble??.came to respect you as a Manager at Sands who was one of the few I ever met who truly walked the talk and who showed just as much grace under pressure when having hot hamburgers lobbed at you by a guest who?s fire on his balcony had been shut down as you did when listening for the umpteenth time to a certain permanent resident who inventoried the trash cans on the property each and every day of the year?.began to value you as a mentor who not only paved the way for a lot of the rest of us but shielded us from the ?big, bad meanies? more times than we knew?.and treasured you as the kind of a friend I could call at 3am if I needed to?and for any reason at all. Perhaps Dylan can say it best: I'll remember you When the wind blows through the piney wood. It was you who came right through, It was you who understood. Though I'd never say That I done it the way That you'd have liked me to. In the end, My dear sweet friend, I'll remember you.###imported-begin##Joye C. Hyman###imported-end##

“ I was totally unaware of Carol's situation. I had grown up with her from grade school through high school and we were in touch by email fairly frequently till just lately. Our HS class of 57 had 50th reunion this month and I had hoped to see her there. I was thinking that I needed to let her know how it all turned out. I am so sorry to hear of her loss. We had many good memories together in our younger years. If someone could fill me in on what happened I would appreciate hearing. I will miss her.##imported-begin##Helen Kerns McIntosh##imported-end##
