“ May the family of dear Caroline find comfort in knowing that she is now simply sleeping, awaiting the call from Jesus Christ to come out of the grave. (John 5:28, 29; 11:11, 43) She will awaken to a world where education is free to all no matter who they are, for God's Kingdom will be in control. (Psalm 37:29; Isaiah 54:13; Daniel 2:44) As you await this grand time, know too that you are invited by Jehovah, the "God of all comfort," to "throw all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you." (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4; 1 Peter 5:7; Psalm 83:18) Take care Maddock and Slook family. If you would like to learn more as to the blessings God's Kingdom will bring, please visit www.jw.org.

“ We are so sorry. Words cannot express our deep sympathy. Caroline was such a great childhood friend to me. We had so much fun growing up together. My parents also have such fond memories of her. She was a sweet, beautiful girl. Our hearts are broken. We just hope you can find some comfort in knowing how much she was loved.

“ I am so heartbroken for the loss of such a beautiful, compassionate, nurturing, loving lady. Caroline exemplified and lived in love of family and friends. She touched everyone's heart with her kindness and generosity. Her light shined brightest for her family. Anyone who was around the Maddocks witnessed the immense love that the family shared. Abby and Olivia each held a special twinkle in her eyes. Her job as Mommy was her greatest love. I am grateful that for the short time I got to share with Caroline, I could call her my friend. She had a special way of easing one's pain, and making you feel safe. Thank you, Caroline, for the sweet memories. Your light will forever shine. My love, hugs, prayers, and tenderness to Abby, Olivia and Alan.

“ Caroline was a very special person. Reading through most of the comments here, I would say everyone is spot on with their description; sweet, funny, dedicated, wonderful mother and wife. She will be dearly missed by all. My continual thoughts and prayers are with you Alan and those two beautiful girls.

“ There are so many words that could be used to describe the type of person Caroline was... Devoted to her family and friends, her profession, and to those children she worked with on a daily basis. Her passion and love for all things was inspiring and contagious. Caroline's comic relief ability she used to help others get through those difficult and stressful times was pretty fantastic too. Although she and I only got to work together closely this past school year, it was fun figuring out about all the times our paths had crossed years before. Abby and my daughter Jacey were in the 3 year old preschool with special needs class at CEC many moons ago... Then Olivia and my son Reid were in daycare together at Creative Beginnings. How neat. And only after Caroline's passing did I realize that I worked with Alan some 20 yrs ago at Wild Water & Wheels. It's so hard to process the loss of such a phenomenal woman. My heart aches at the thought of not seeing her face or hearing her laugh, but most of all my heart weeps for her family and friends. May your memories of sweet Caroline help you through this difficult time.

“ There are no words to express the sadness we all feel over the loss of beautiful Caroline. She was a ray of sunshine that could brighten up any room. It was a pleasure teaching with her. She loved each of her students dearly and they loved her. She talked about her family often and you know she carried them in her heart all the time. I'm so sorry for all of her family. She is and will continue to be loved and missed! Xoxoxoxox

“It is so hard to say good bye to such a special person, but I know Caroline will live in my memories and heart forever. Caroline was such a sweet person who loved with all her heart. She loved Alan, her daughters, mom and dad. Although I never met her sister and friend Liz, I felt like I knew them because of all the stories and her big smile when she spoke of them. I cannot imagine your pain. I will continue to pray for all of you. Caroline was the best!”

“ I first met Caroline when she moved to South Carolina. We worked together at Carolina Forest Elementary school, and both of us being Pennsylvania girls made it a perfect match. She was a top rate speech therapist who dearly loved her students, and they loved her as well. I would on occasion speak with her after she left CFE. She spoke with love and smiles about her precious daughters. I will miss Caroline dearly. My thoughts and prayers are with her and her family.

“ My heart is heavy thinking about the loss of Sweet Caroline. I will miss our frequent texts, conversations, online shopping, and most of all our friendship. She just texted me on Sunday that we wouldn't be together at Lakewood this year but we would always have Socastee. I miss her and will never forget her kind loving friendship. My son loved Caroline like an Aunt...he always looked forward to her sweet hugs on Monday mornings and her saying have a great day sweet boy. She will truly be missed.....she was such a great friend and always willing to help in anyway possibly. God takes the best...well that was Caroline.
Olivia, Abby and Alan, you guys were her world! My prayers are with the family.
Until we meet again my sweet friend??

To the Maddock and Slook families -

I am so sorry for the loss of Caroline. Caroline and I went to Central together and she was one of my closest friends through college. I have so many wonderful memories with Caroline from Senior Prom to numerous visits at Pitt. Her smile and positive energy have always been one of the many things that I cherished about Caroline. I am sending lots of prayers to Alan, Abby and Olivia along with her parents and sister.

“ I am heartbroken about the loss of our dear Caroline. She was such a wonderful member of our Socastee Elementary family and especially of our special education department. Caroline was a shining example of how mothers should be. She was so proud of Abby and Olivia and it was evident how much she loved the girls and Alan. I will have the family in my prayers. Please know that if there is anything the Socastee Elementary family can do for your family we are here, let us know and we will help.

I am so sorry for your loss. Unfortunately I did not have the pleasure of knowing Caroline. To know Alan, I know that he had the very best, wife and mother. She will always be an angel regardless of where she is. The dear lord felt that he needed her now, so she is resting in peace. Sending much love and prayers to all the family.
