“ Mr. Dargan, I am so sorry to hear of Mrs. Dargan passing. Know you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers. Several years ago when my step-father passed away, Mrs. Dargan sent me the nicest sympathy card as I am often reminded of what a wonderful person she is as I have the card above my desk today. She will be missed.##imported-begin##Richard Duckworth##imported-end##

“ Jim and I are so sorry to hear of Aunt Caroline's passing. What I will always remember about her is her great capacity for love and laughter. She had the most wonderful laugh. I consider her one of the finest ladies I will ever meet, and her children and grandchildren are her cherished legacy. She set the standard for gracious, Christian behaviour, and will be missed by all who knew her. Much love, Susan, Jim, and Elizabeth###imported-begin###susan s james mayer###imported-end##

“ Dear Archie and Children, I am so very saddened by the news of Caroline's death. It has been so many years since we've been together. I have memories of the wonderful times we shared. I regret that we've missed each other these last number of years. My blindness has certainly been a handicap. I am now at Still Hopes Retirement home in W. Columbia. My love is with you and your family at this time. "Chubby"###imported-begin###sarah covington rice (Chubby)###imported-end##
