“ My condolences to you Allison. You never met me, but you knew my father Bill Eschbach and his wife Jan. He was a cousin to your grandmother Gladys. When I was a young boy we used to visit Myrtle Beach and had many fun days on the beach and at the boardwalk arcades with your mother. We also enjoyed her visits back to Johnson City. Please bear in mind that Jesus is always with you and if you turn to him at these times he will give you the strength you need to continue on. As you walk through the valley of the shadow of death, remember you walk THROUGH it. You don't stay there. There is something marvelous beyond....the house of the Lord ... no more sorrow and no more pain. Your mother is experiencing all the promises our Christian faith makes to us. It is an immeasurable loss for you to have lost all of your family at such a young age. Keep your faith and cherish your memories. Do your best to make your mother proud of you. Kurt M. Eschbach, cousin###imported-begin###Kurt M. Eschbach###imported-end##
