“ Stan and Geneva were our next door neighbors. Very sweet and loving people! I remember the first summer after we moved in, our children came to visit over the 4th of July. Stan appeared on our doorstep with a huge, cold watermelon. How nice was that! God bless him and may he rest in peace. Condolences to all those who loved him.

“ It has been my pleasure to be a friend of Stan for the past 20 years. His passing hurts and at the same time comforts me because I am sure Stan is in heaven with God and his precious Geneva. I will always remember him as a very loving, caring man. His walk with God was evident in his actions and words towards all. Go rest high, Stan.
