

Catherine Brown

December 28, 1922 - November 26, 2013

Aynor...Maida Catherine Dawsey Brown, 90, passed away Tuesday, November 26, 2013. Born in Aynor on December 28, 1922, she was the daughter of the late James Wilson and Maida Culbertson Dawsey. She was predeceased by her husband William H. J. Brown, a daughter Cathy Brown Floyd, and two sisters, Estelle Mohr and Moselle Elliott. She is survived by three children: son Billy and his wife Patsy of Columbia, SC, daughter Judy Gidney and her husband Charles of Conway, and son Jimmy and his wife June of Conway. She also is survived by eight grandchildren: Wil Brown, his wife Amy and their children Hamilton, Duncan and Gracen; Marie Holden, her husband Aaron and her children Maria and Nathan; Dey Greenwell and her children Z, Deyton and Marki; David Floyd, his wife Julie and their children Josh and Bertie; Emerson Brown and his wife Jessica; John William Floyd, his wife Sarah and their children Sophie Claire and Emily; Lisa Dent, her husband Lance and their children John Lawrence and Aubrey; Catherine Hewitt and her husband Blake; step granddaughter Martha Henson and her husband Chad. In addition, she is survived by a brother, John Dawsey and his wife Barbara and a sister, Jean White. The family also wishes to express special thanks to her faithful and loving caregivers, Mary and Gladys.

Mrs. Brown worked many years, well into her seventies, as a purchasing agent at AVX, accumulating many life-long friends and baking many birthday cakes for co-workers. She was a wonderful cook and seamstress, and an avid Clemson fan. She and her late husband had many years of fun dancing with the Sun Dancers western style square dance club in Conway. She could not resist collecting just one more beautiful miniature tea set, tea pot, or doll, and she had a collection of hats that she wore regularly that would rival anyone. Most of all she cherished holidays, good food and family meals together. Through the years, she was very active in her church especially United Methodist Women, serving in local, district and state offices.

Funeral services will be held at Aynor United Methodist Church at 11:00 am Friday November 29. The family will receive friends from 10:00 - 11:00 in the church fellowship hall prior to the funeral. Entombment services will be private at Hillcrest Mausoleum.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Aynor United Methodist Church, P. O. Box 348, Aynor, SC 29511 or the charity of one's choice.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort from your memories, as well as God's word the bible. Why do people we love die? Romans 5:12 says: "That is why, just as through one man (Adam) sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned." How loving of God to promise what is found at Revelation 21:4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”

“ I'm sorry to hear about your loss. Catherine has really lived a wonderful life in baking her way in the hearts of many. To find her way in the lives of so many reminds me what Psalm 90:10 says "The span of our life is 70 years, Or 80 if one is especially strong. But they are filled with trouble and sorrow; They quickly pass by, and away we fly." Take care of each other.

“ Family, so sorry to hear about your loss. I have worked and known this sweet lady for a long time. No matter the occasion she would bring a special dish. We looked forward to see what she was going to bring. It was never the same thing. She was a Clemson fan all the way. She will be missed.

The matriarch of the Brown Family was an extraordinary woman who could light up a room with that beautiful smile and the twinkle in her eye. I know her family and friends will miss her very much. She lived life to its fullest in the essence of love and joy. My thoughts and prayers are with the entire family.
