Tribute Wall

“ To my dearest Uncle Jack, Mark, Beth and the rest of the Gibson family, I am so saddened to hear of the passing of my godmother, Aunt Cathy. We loved her very much. You all were always part of our family and have been for over 50 years. We treasure all the times we spent together, especially during the holidays, birthday parties, etc. May God help you get through this time of sorrow. Aunt Cathy will be looking down on each and everyone of us everyday. She will always have a special place in my heart. I love you all. RIP Aunt Cathy. Love, your goddaughter, Linda and Mike too...##imported-begin##Linda A. Artino##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy on the loss of Aunt Cathy. She will be missed. I pray that God will comfort you during this very difficult time. My parents treasured the friendship you shared for more than 50 years. Some of their most fondest memories were of times spent with you. You are like family and always will be. That's why we have always addressed you as Aunt Cathy, Uncle Jack and cousins Mark and Beth. In time, I hope that happy memories of Aunt Cathy will replace your sorrow with joy and laughter. I know they will for me. God bless you! Love always, Elaine (Gerondakis) Fraser and Jim, James and Andrew, too!##imported-begin##Elaine (Gerondakis) Fraser##imported-end##
