“ To the Johnson Family:

As the days and weeks pass, and as you return to life's routine, may you seek comfort from God's Word, the Bible. James 4:8
encourages; "Draw close to God, and He will draw close to you."

My condolences,
Shirley Brown-Acker

“ For Richard Booth and family.

You and your family are in my prayers. I just happened to be looking at obits from The State and read of Cathy's death. There are times that I am reminded of your dad and mom and how much my dad loved Clyde... they were more like brothers than cousins.

God bless you all,

Dan Jones (son of Peter D. Jones)

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May the outpouring of sympathy, the kind acts of friends and strangers, as well as your memories give you comfort to help you endure the days ahead. The Bible also offers comfort. “For God is near to those broken at heart. “ Ps 34:17,18. Our Creator promises that there will soon be a time when “death will be no more.” Revelation 21:4

“ Anita and Elizabeth,
I have so many wonderful memories of your momma from our days at USC. She and your dad always treated me as their third daughter, serving as my family away from home. Your dad introduced me to fried turkey while your mom introduced me to brown rice! All things this picky Virginia girl had never experienced. They welcomed me to holiday meals, and always made me laugh. I know the past few years have been difficult, and I can't imagine the loss you are feeling, however, I can only imagine the time they are having together in Heaven. You now have two special Angels looking down upon you and your families.

Anita---I am so saddened not to be with you during this time, but please know you are in my daily thoughts and prayers. I know your momma was so proud of you for the sacrifices you made to make this last year easier for her. I know the days to come will be long and sometimes empty, but you have so many memories that will never be taken away. I know you wish Jayda B could have spent more time knowing your parents, but in the short time she's been here, you made the most of every second----movies, play time, dance recitals, fun outings...Jayda will have her own memories and lots of pictures to help her remember. I love you girly! I will see you soon!

“ Anita and Elizabeth, At this time remember, your mom will always be as close as a memory, and God will always be as close as a prayer.
