“Cathy was a good friend and an excellent teacher and supervisor. I enjoyed working with Cathy as well as learning from her. She also had a wonderful sense of humor. She was very proud of her son Dan and often spoke of how well he was doing at school and in life. Cathy, you left us much too soon. I can't believe I won't be able to talk or text with you anymore. You are one of God's Angels now. I guess He knew your work was done in this life and He needed you more. Rest well my friend. --- Kareen Villano
