“ Dear Hughes family, I worked with Cass at Kindercare. What a wonderful person she was. I have fond memories of the times I worked in the infant room with her. She used to light up the room. I remember how she used to dance and sing around the room, she was so full of energy. I am so sorry to hear of your loss. My thoughts and prayers are with you at this most difficult time. “ Dear family ~ Grandpa, Aunt Cathy, Mom, Aunt Lorraine and Dawn and to all who loved her ~ I hold dear so many wonderful memories of grandma in Croydon, PA and, during her later years in Conway, SC. Thinking back to Spencer Drive ? I can see grandma frying bacon grandpa liked it very well done ? black even. I can see her fixing Grandpa?s lunch for work every day where he had to go very early every morning. She had some good lady friends on that street that were important to her ? the name Marcella comes to mind. I can see the BIG wooden fork and spoon hanging on the wall by the kitchen table where we sat together and shared all those loving, delicious family dinners complete with real mashed potatoes and lots of iced tea? where everyone was loved and everyone was valued. I miss those days ?as I know we all do. I remember the warmth and love and laughter. I always considered her to be a fun grandma and the love and devotion she gave to her family are gifts I hope to pass on to my own family. I smile when I think about the couch covered in plastic, especially now that I have little ones. I think of how wonderful a grandmother she was, and I think of her with the children she so proudly and lovingly cared for at the daycare. She took me to the daycare and she always shared photos of the little ones that meant so much to her. She touched many lives. I think of her singing ?little bunny foo foo? to my son her great grandson, which she did with such animation. And, thinking way back, I can be a little girl again swinging on the swings that faced her house at the park just across the street and I felt safe and I felt that everything was right with the world. I really wanted to be there to pay tribute to the grandmother I loved so much, and I'm filled with great sadness ...I'm sorry, I wanted to be there for all of you. I didn?t know when I saw her in April that it would be our last time together. God, take care of Grandma ? I miss her and we all miss her and she was a wonderful lady. “ Hughes Family Please know that all of you are in our thoughts and prayers. Thinking back, I remember many fond, funny, and happy memories of "Grams" I consider her Grams, because she, and everyone, made me feel like a part of the family. I'll always remember her infectious laugh, her funny looks, her calling me, Lloyd, her great roast beef and fried chicken. I'll mostly remember her loving and caring spirit toward Holly and Anthony, and later, Evan and I. She is such a special and important part of Holly's life and, in turn, my life as well. We will miss you always, and love you forever, Gram. Jody, Holly, Anthony, and Evan###imported-begin##Jody Sleppy###imported-end##

“ We have a built-in desire to live and enjoy life with our family and friends. When we lose our loved one, for what ever reasons we may believe, it is distressing, because we miss them very much. At these times, we need encouragement and hope so that we can cope with our lost. For that reason, we can be encouraged by reflecting on the promises that God has given us thru his word the Bible, concerning the hope of seeing our love ones again. I hope that you find comfort in reading these scriptures. John 11:11-44, John 5:21, 28, 29 and Revelation 21:4. My prayers are with your family.###imported-begin##Karen Cross###imported-end##

“ Dear Mr. Hughes and family, My mom, Marge Martin, now living in Seattle, WA, received word of Cass' passing from Betty Zamboti today. She called me to let me know, and I'm so glad she did. I have fond memories which I treasure of Cass' generosity, and wonderful sense of humor when I was in my teens. I loved coming to your home as Patty's friend. I was always made to feel welcome, and the food was always good too! I'll always remember Cass with a twinkle in her eye, enjoying life. I will pray for her soul, and for all of you. My love to all. “ Jim and family. Joanne and I offer our sincere condolences on the passing of Cass. She was a REMARKABLE WOMAN and you two have been a REMARKABLE COUPLE! Raising three girls is a full time job for anyone. Raising a fourth, voluntarily, because it was the right thing to do, requires extraordinary compassion,dedication and love. You did it, and as Dawn's in laws who couldn't love her any more if we were her parents, and the grandparents of Dawns children, you both have our love and admiration forever! I wish we could have provided more support to all of you during this most difficult time. Distance makes that very difficult, but please be assured we think of you all continuously and you have our love and condolences. With deepest sympathy, Joanne and Ed##imported-begin##Joanne and Ed Mackin, Sr.##imported-end##
