“ I was so glad I got to know a person like Cathy. She was a very sweet and kind hearted person. Always laughing and happy. I worked with her at Days Inn. When she told me she was quitting, I saw no way to stay there without her, so I left too. May God be with all her family and friends. Kathy is smiling down on all of us.##imported-begin##Tammy Jones##imported-end##

“ I just want to let you know how special Cathy was. Her smile and bubbly personality was what I liked most about her. She was taken so suddenly but is Good Hands now. She will be watching over all of you. I lost my brother a while back and it was sudden. To get me through the times I remember all the good times and funny things he used to do to me. I know you have a lot of good memories and they will get you through. Take care and I am here if you need anything. Yours and Cathy's friend. Susan##imported-begin##susan wollenberg##imported-end##

“ I met Cathy last summer when I worked at the Flea Market for a friend. I was charmed by her smile and sweetness. We had many pleasant chats during the summer and fall and her smile never wavered. This year when I returned I missed her and upon asking where she was I was very saddened to hear. I have been greatly upset for such a good person to be called home so soon. My thoughts and prayers are with her family in their grief and loss. May God bless you all.##imported-begin##Brenda Shropshire##imported-end##
