“ Cecil and I went to a lot of bluegrass festivals together. I have never had a better friend. He will be greatly missed by myself and all of the bluegrass community. He was a special friend to myself and all who knew him.

“ I have lived across the street from Cecil and Sue since before they moved here. I loved both of them right away. Cecil was a kind and helpful person always wanting to know if I needed any help when I was piddlin around outfits. The last time I saw him was Oct. 12 when my grandchildren and I went to their backyard to feed the fish. Cecil came out and sat down on the patio watching the kids feed the ducks and "accidentally " fall in the water. I will miss my friend. He could light up a room with his sense of humor.

“ Uncle Cecil was a great man and was always so amazing to me. Throughout my childhood we would stay with him for a week in Virginia and i loved this week every summer. I will always remember Uncle Cecil for his awesome humor, free-pirit, love of family and always willing to host a fun time! He will be greatly missed.
