“ Everyone in North Conway knew Dwight. As a small girl, I remember Dwight and his family walking to th Church of God every Sunday morning, I would also see him a lot at G & T convenience store. My brother, George, always enjoyed talking and kidding around with Dwight. My deepest condolences to his brother, Wesley, and all the family.

Ah that made me laugh! I'm gonna miss him looking for me every Monday when the Steelers lost. And telling me that he really felt like the Cowboys were going to the Super Bowl this year. Just rubbing it in. Love him so much.
