“ Dear JoDale and Family, you all have been in my thoughts as I know your hearts are heavy with the loss of your mother. Last year I had the privilege of celebrating your mom's birthday with your wonderful family. I was amazed at "Miss Todd's" strength, spirit and quick wit....qualities that surely helped to sustain her for 92 years. While you mourn your mother's passing remember the many wonderful times you shared with her and rejoice in her life. With deepest sympathy, Sandy & Bill Meyer

“ Danny, Sandra, Lou Ann, Faye, and Jodale, I am so sorry for your loss in the passing of Miss Cecile. At the same time, I am rejoicing for her. What a kind and sweet-spirited lady she was. It has been a blessing to reconnect with her, as well as you guys, during this past year. She was such an inspiration to me. Mom will surely miss her, too. I know that you all will be comforted by the life she lived and the bond you shared. I will see you soon.

“ JoDale always bragged on Mrs. Todd's wonderful country cooking. Knowing how we crave southern home cooking, the Rushton's invited us over for a wonderful evening meal courtesy of JoDale's mother. It was everything and more. We sat at the table for hours telling stories and enjoying great company. Mrs. Todd was so full of life and seemed to be thrilled that we enjoyed such a fabulous meal that we know was prepared with such love and care.

*Much love to all of the family,
