

Charles A. Milstead, Sr.

February 15, 2006

Pawleys Island Charles Allison Milstead, Sr., age 76 of Windy Lane died Wednesday, February 15, 2006 at Waccamaw Community Hospital. Born January 20, 1930 in Birmingham, AL and grew up in Pensacola, FL, he was the son of the late Frank and Nan Rutland Milstead. Mr. Milstead was a US Army veteran of the Korean War. He was a retired Engineer with 29 years of service from International Paper and moved to Birmingham where he was affiliated with Rust Engineering. He established Milstead Inc. as a consultant. Mr. Milstead was a member of St. Paul's Waccamaw United Methodist Church. Surviving are his wife, Sue H. Milstead; son, Charles Allison Milstead, Jr. and wife, M. Abbey of Birmingham, AL; daughter, Cynthia Nan Anglyn and husband Ted of Atlanta, GA; grandchild, Ariel Milstead Poulson and husband Kenny of Portland, OR; great grandchildren, Hayden and Ave Jane and brother, Frank B. Milstead and wife Sally of Mobile, AL. Memorial services will be 2:00 PM, Sunday at Pawleys Island Chapel. Memorials may be made to Sloan Kettering Cancer Center, 125 York Ave., New York, NY 10021.

Tribute Wall

“ I only had the honor of meeting Mr.Milstead one time. Myself, My wife and our children visiting him in September was an exsperiance I will always remember. I am very sorry for the Milsteads' loss.##imported-begin##Kenny Poulson##imported-end##

February 22, 2006 at 12:00 AM

“ I am the luckiest granddaughter in the world. I miss you Pops, but I know your smiling down on all of us. Thank you for everything you've taught me. I love you.##imported-begin##Ariel Milstead Poulson##imported-end##

February 21, 2006 at 12:00 AM

“ I worked with Charlie at Rust Engineering for several years. As a newer engineer, I found Charlie to be kind, generous, and always willing to teach. Though it's been several years, I remember him very fondly and have prayed for him often. You have my sincere condolences, Susan Hain Clark Birmingham##imported-begin##Susan Hain Clark##imported-end##

February 20, 2006 at 12:00 AM