

Charles A. "Trey" Morrison III

October 11, 1986 - July 24, 2024

Charles "Trey" Morrison III, age 37, of Myrtle Beach, SC, passed away suddenly on Wednesday, July 24, 2024, while landscaping, dedicated to a job he loved.

Born October 11, 1986, in Salem, VA, Trey had a contagious smile that captured your heart. He loved deeply and always saw the best in people. He grew up on a small farm and had a big heart for animals, particularly caring for the calves. He cherished his beagle, Lady, and black cat, Sambo. He loved anything outdoors, but especially going fishing and hunting with his dad, who he lovingly called "Big Guy." Unlike most young boys, his room was always spotless, and he never had to be told it was bedtime. He liked to go to his granny's house to swim in her pool and fish in the pond. He also enjoyed spending time on the beach and was so excited when he recently found his first shark tooth. His appreciation of the little things was inspirational. He had a unique way with words that encouraged and uplifted others.

Trey is survived by his parents, Chuck and Michele; siblings, Phoenix (Katie) Bush of Charleston, WV, Tacoma Bush of Myrtle Beach, SC, and Harleigh Bush of Morgantown, WV; grandparents Esther Williams of Myrtle Beach, SC and Don Allen of Winter Haven, FL; many aunts, uncles, cousins, and numerous other relatives and friends.

Trey was preceded in death by his beloved grandmother, Raye Lynn Allen. Trey loved her pecan pie and cherished the precious memories of his grandma. Trey was also preceded in death by his beloved grandfather, John Williams. He loved to go to his grandfather's house and spend time playing with his train.

A private service will be held followed by Trey being laid to rest at Ocean Woods Cemetery, Myrtle Beach, SC.

Trey was extremely proud of his dad being a Shriner. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Shriners Children's, 950 West Faris Rd, Greenville, SC 29605.
