Charles Wesley Brindley

Charles Wesley Brindley was born in Yonkers, NY April 8, 1945 and entered into the peace of God on June 10, 2012.

Charles was a graphic artist with Darby Group of Companies, and a long time resident of Plainview, LI, NY before moving to Murrells Inlet, SC in July of 2007. He is survived by his wife of 44 years, Margaret; his son and daughter-in-law Charles Wesley Jr. and Hilma Brindley of Pittsburgh; their sons, Charles Wesley III and William Declan, his daughter Maureen Siobahn Hucks and grand-daughter Eleanor Grace both of Murrells Inlet; brother-in-law and wife Thomas and Jean McGarry of Malverne, NY nephew Thomas, Jr. also of Malverne; sister-in-law, Maryellen McGarry and husband John Imperato of St.

Lucie West, FL.

At Charles's request please make memorial donations in lieu of flowers to Mercy Hospice, The Prostate Cancer Foundation, Coastal Animal Rescue of Murrells Inlet, SC or to the charity of your choice.

“ May the angels lead him into paradise, may the martyrs receive you at your coming and take you to Jerusalem the Holy City. May the choirs of angels receive you, and may you, with the once poor Lazarus, have rest eternal. Amen.

Love you so much Charlie -- we all miss you but know that you will be in our hearts forever - along with Mom of course - I know she was there to take you up to heaven. Love from Maryellen.

“ My dearest friend - we shared so much - you watched & comforted me when I cried - you made me laugh - you gave me your friendship and help unselfishly - I will miss you but I know that you are in a better place, watching over us all. Love, "Gonzarella"
