“ Well Charlie, you have flown your last flight but this time it wasn't in a B-26. I will really miss you Charlie, you were a great client and a good friend. You told me the last time we talked how lucky you were to have lived so long and to have married three fine ladies. You are now with Elaine and Lillian whom you loved deeply. I am so sorry Irene for your loss. Charlie told me how you took so good care of him. Thank you for that and God bless you. We had planned a trip to Charlotte for the dedication of our granddaughter, therefore, I could not attend the memorial service. If not for that I would have been there.##imported-begin##Jerry Willhite##imported-end##

“ Today as you gather together with family and friends to remember the life of Charles Glock , encourage each other with the hope of the resurrection recorded for us in God?s Word the Bible. John 5: 28,29 God?s word guarantees a resurrection for all those who have fallen asleep in death. Jesus Christ resurrected his dear friend Lazarus as a sign to all those present that he has the power to fulfill God?s purpose for mankind. John 11:11-44 God created us with a desire to live and enjoy life here on earth. Ecclesiastes 3:11 That is all He ever wanted for us. Charles is now awaiting his resurrection. Though this is a sad time, it is also a time to look forward. Look to the future with confidence and hope. Imagine the day you will see Charles again, just like Martha and Mary saw Lazarus again. He will be well and full of life! What a wonderful gift God has given us! I hope you will take some time to meditate on the scriptures above to find comfort. My thoughts and prayers are with you at this time.##imported-begin##Suzanne Lombardo##imported-end##
