“ Dear LORD Please take our Worshipful Brother in your arms and welcome him to your home. He will keep a smile on your face with his dry wit. He always has something pleasant to say. When you open the big gates he will be the first one standing in line. We will miss him here, but know he will be there waiting for us when our time is up down here. Thank you Dear LORD, Chris Holland##imported-begin##Christian V. Holland, Jr.##imported-end##

“ Uncle Chuck was a funny and pleasant man to be around - I remember visiting as a much younger person than today and he loved to play tricks on his nephew. I'll always remember his pipe and his upholstery room where we would spend some time just watching him work. Soft spoken and a ready smile - God bless you Uncle Chuck!
