“ We have just learned of Charlie's death on April 22. A few of us old-timers remember him with many good thoughts. He was a fine person and highly competent technician. He was also hard to beat at Bridge. Some of us still at work here include Gene Taylor, Frank Bale, Bruce Northwood, Mike McNea, and myself, Gene Boucher. We send our sincere condolences.##imported-begin##voice of america##imported-end##

“ Dianne, Chuck, and Mavis and the entire Wood family, We express our sorrow at the loss of your dad and husband. He was a fun man who was very cordial the few times we had the pleasure of his company. Had left a strong family heritage that is to be cherished. You are in our prayers for the strength and peace you need to go on. Much Love, David and Christine###imported-begin###David & Christine Williams###imported-end##
