“ Our deepest sympathies to the Harvey Family. Uncle Chuck always liked me for some reason. Even though Carol and I almost killed a horse on a long long walk when we were teenagers. I'm so glad he and Aunt Shirley got to visit us in Beaufort SC last year. He will be remembered forever.

“ I don't remember Mr Harvey very well, but I do remember his kind face and his beautiful daughters and wife. His loving wife and daughters are a testament to what kind of man he was. My the Harvey family find peace in knowing that one day you will see your Dad and husband again.

With love,

“ To my daddy. There is no need to say good by. You live forever in my heart. You know how much I love you and I know how much you love me. You can rest knowing you did good.

“ Refiner’s Fire:

Dad, your affliction was God’s refining fire -- Isaiah 48:10 says, “Behold, I have refined you, but not as silver; I have tried you in the furnace of affliction.”

1 Peter 5:10 says “And after you have suffered a little while, the God of all grace, who has called you to His eternal glory in Christ, will Himself restore, confirm, strengthen, and establish you.

I saw you walk in my dreams. Your sufferings and afflictions are over. May you walk with God, and wait patiently for your loved ones to join you.

We love you, and will miss you. In Christ’s Name – May God be glorified.

“ Oh, Lord, support us all the day long...until the shadows lengthen and the evening comes, and the busy world is hushed, and the fever of life is over, and our work is done. . .Then, in Thy mercy grant us a safe lodging, and a holy rest, and peace at the last.

From the 1928 Book of Common Prayer for Families

Rest in Eternal Peace, Dad -- You will be missed by family, friends and all who knew and loved you.
