“ Rest in peace buddy. Arlene lost a drinking partner and I lost a piece of my history. Who will ever forget the parking lot at the Jet games. The calls Joy made to me! Because of you she hated me! The Army and Navy game in Philly and the filling of my multi pocketed jacket with your famous "Bloody Mary's....well, I must admit, that was Dee's idea!" The Turkey episode. The quick exits when "Susie" made her trip. The Ear, The Harp, P.J. Reilly's, Sullivans, Sailing, and the disgusting hot tables. I will never forget the "Walk About" we did on St. Patricks Day when the girls were cooking corn beef and cabbage from 5 in the morning. I swear we walked 100 miles. The Irish Pub and when we painted the Emerald. Memories that will never be taken. Memories that will always keep you with me in my heart. One more thing if you are listening...Dee clearing out the second floor of the Christmas Store in Pennsylvania. Sending them all to Texas, I should imagine. Rest well my friend...you will be missed but not more than we will but not any more than we will.

“ To the Karasek Family:

In this difficult time in your life, may you find comfort in God’s Word, the Bible. James 4:8 encourages; “Draw close to God, and He will draw close to you.”

*My condolences,
SBA.*
