“ Dear family of my Brother, my deepest and most sincere sympathy too all of you! I will miss my dear brother. My friend at the assisted living community here told me that I could send all of you this message on the computer...we know how that would go for me not knowing anything about computers. God Bless all of you! Love Joan

“ Dear Nancy, Eric, Greg and Jacki, Please accept my deepest sympathies in the loss of your Dad and Grandfather. I am sure that a special place is held for him in your hearts that will live on in memories you have shared. Nancy, I am so glad for you that you got to spend the last couple of years with your Dad in South Carolina. I am sure he appreciated the company and it gave him a fulfilling quality to his life. Please know that even though miles separate us, you are loved and thought of with special compassion at this time.##imported-begin##Susan Monahan##imported-end##
