“ Please take comfort in the knowledge that God has made a provision for those lost to us in death. The Bible says, "this is the will of my Father, that everyone who recognizes the Son and exercise faith in him should have life, and I will resurrect him on the last day,"(John 6:40). Jesus gives us hope in the fact that one day our dead loved ones will be brought back to life. So while we grieve now for those lost in death, the best is yet to come!

“ It breaks my heart to see this picture of Bradley. He was such a fine young man and had a smile that would light up a room. I am so sorry for all the problems he has had physically but he seemed to bounce back each time until lately. He was taken way too young and my prayers are with all of his family. I will miss seeing him in church but he is no longer in pain and is with our Lord. Prayers to you all.

“ Prayers & love to Betty, Parker, and the Reavis family. Bradley you had the brightest smile in the world and you without a doubt always made me laugh. I learned so much from you in such a short amount of time. Perhaps the most important is the best parts of life are those small, nameless moments spent with those who matter most. Life is too short to hold onto grudges and not love and be kind to one another. Thank you Bradley for all my lessons learned. We love you and will forever keep you in our hearts - The Hollands

“ In loving memory of one of the finest, young Christian young man I have ever known. So many lives have been touched by Bradley. His strength and perseverance were above reproach. He was such a wonderful father, having that precious little son with him in church. He could have been a lot of other places on Subday morning. But I know having his son in God's house with him was what was important. Betty, Kim, Charles, and all the Reavis family, I love you, and I am lifting you up to our Lord in prayer that He will give you strength and comfort in the days ahead.

“ My sincere condolences to the family for the loss of your dear loved one. May you find comfort and hope from the Bible promise at Isaiah 25:8 that in the near future God (Psalms 83:18) will eliminate forever, death and the sufferings that it brings. So draw close to God in prayers and lean on Him as you cope during this most difficult time.
