“ Charlie was a great guy who halped so many over the years. His passing is a loss to all of us.

“ Our hearts were so heavy with the loss of such a great friend—but then we stopped to remember how fortunate we were to have Charlie as part of our lives. There was never any doubt about his priorities. His family always came first, but he also had room in his heart for his work and his love for fishing, golf, and bowling—and he excelled at all. I’m confident many will always remember him for his remarkable skills, dedication, and tireless energy in helping others in his real estate initiatives. Charlie was among the most honest, caring, and loyal people we have ever known. He enriched the lives of many. He and his family will always remain in our prayers and our hearts.

“ Dear Thelma and Family: So sorry to know that Charlie is no longer with us. We fondly remember the many wonderful times we had together sampling the fine cuisine of Northern Virginia and the D.C. area. We also remember the wine making, the fishing trips and sharing family moments together. As far as taking care of business when it came to real estate, Charlie had no peers. Our best to you and let us know if there is anything we can do for you. Chuck and Marge Kerstann, Camdenton, Missouri

“ A genuine, honest and decent man who was a friend to my family from the first day he took me out house hunting. Charlie took care of our house when we were overseas for six years and sold it for us four years after our return. Liked by so many DEA Agents, he was the consummate professional and shared so much of himself with all of us.

My first contact was in the Embassy in Bangkok shortly after I was notified that I was being transferred to Washington, D.C. I came back after lunch and the Thai receptionist told me "the White House called for you" and gave me a D.C. number. Figuring it was a fellow agent's prank - I tossed the message. The next day she told me "the White House" called for you again. This time I returned the call only to discover it was Charlie calling from Whitehouse Realty - he took great joy with the story when we finally met later in Virginia. For years after we moved out of the area Charlie sent a "White House" Christmas ornament - we have a collection and, at that special time, will always remember our friend Charlie from "the White House."

Our prayers for Charlie, Thelma and the family. He was one in a million!

I was shocked and saddened to hear about Charlie. I think I was among the very first DEA agent to use his services when I transferred to D.C. in 1982. Interest rates were over 20% and we couldn't sell our old house, so Charlie found us a great rental. Two years later, he helped us buy a house.

He was always very professional and if he said he would be there at a given time, you could be certain he would pull up in his Cadillac!

Because of my good experience with Charlie, I eagerly passed his name on to other agents who needed a real estate agent. I can only wonder how many DEA agents he helped over the years. It had to be a big number. Good for them and good for Charlie.

I also enjoyed a great fishing trip with him.
