“ Dear Andie, I am still a newcomer to the P.I. community but feel as if I have known you for years but only know you as Andie. You are one of the first people I met when buying my condo almost 8 years ago. I just discovered today via friend, Jo Ann Strickler, that Charles Sanford was your spouse and he was killed in an accident in December. I cannot tell you how sorry I am that this tragedy has happened to you and your family --- I'll come by the store and give you a hug in person, but meantime, this is an electronic hug. Thinking of you. Cecelia Cook

“ To Andie & Allison & Charles' family,

*We were so saddened to read about Chuck's death. He was such a devoted husband & father & so much more. Marsh & I talked about his & Allison's love for the white rats and how you & Chuck were so cool about "those rodents". We even ended up with one in our house for ~3 years and I ended up loving him as much as our kids did! I can't express my sorrow for all of you. I know you're Christians and only our Lord will get you through this painful time. God Bless you all, you're in our prayers,

“ I had the pleasure of knowing Chuck for all of his years with International Paper. Whenever we met, we always enjoyed swapping boating and fishing stories. His stories always seemed to be better than mine. He was a good friend and we will miss him. Our prayers go out to his family during this time of grief. Bob Beason

“ To the Stanford Family:

In this difficult time in your lives, may you find comfort in God's Word, the Bible. James 4:8 encourages; "Draw close to God, and He will draw close to you."

“ Andy, I will miss Chuck's friendship. Working and playing with Chuck was always fun and rewarding. Whether it was getting wood to the mill or following him down a ski slope he was an inspiration.
