“ I would like to extend my sincere condolences to the family of Charles Studenka. After reading all of the loving, warm messages in the guest book, I can see that Mr. Studenka was a very special man. It is good to know that you, Charlotte, have supportive friends and family ready to help you at this difficult time. God, our Creator, also understands and cares for what the Studenka family is going through right now. This is the time to, ?Draw close to God, and he will draw close to you.? James 4:8 The Bible is a rich source of hope, comfort and encouragement. The Bible, God?s Word, give us the hope of a resurrection. The word resurrection literally means a ? standing up again.? And that is exactly what happened in the nine-recorded resurrections that are in the Bible. The individuals who were resurrected were returned to life here on Earth. Though that may be difficult to understand, it is true. At John 5:28,29 Jesus said, ?Do not marvel at this, for the hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear my voice and come out...? There is a beautiful account in the book of John, Chapter 11, and verses 11-44. This is the account of the resurrection of Jesus? close friend Lazarus. It is recorded for you to be comforted and put confidence in the hope that God has held out to all who have died. In fact, the resurrection of Jesus Christ himself is the most outstanding reason to believe that this will happen. The bible also describes those who have died as ?asleep in death ?. Just as in a deep sleep, those who have died will be woken up to life. Imagine God calling out to Charles to come out, just as Jesus did for his friend Lazarus! The joy is beyond words to describe. I would encourage you to take some quiet time and read the account of Lazarus? resurrection and meditate on what this will mean to you. I hope this message has brought some hope and comfort to you. My prayers are with your family.##imported-begin##Suzanne Lombardo##imported-end##
