“ Charley was one of my classmates and friends! She was so much fun when we were in high school! Loved her laughter especially after school working on different projects! Have not seen her since a class reunion years ago! She and Hank always made me laugh! I am holding her family close in my thoughts and prayers! God bless you all and give you strength! A special hug to you Hank. Wish I could be there to help you celebrate her life! She was one of a kind! Hugs and love to you all! Vickie Snyder Byrd

“ WE are very sad to read of Charleys passing. She, Jim and I were classmates in school and graduated in 1966 from Conway high. She always had fun things going on and we enjoyed knowing her. My wife ,Eloise helped nurse her when her first child was born. We will miss seeing her at our class reunions. God bless you all during this sad time. Know too that friends do care and we will all miss her. Sincerely, Al and Eloise Dusenbury.

“ My first memories of Mrs. Charley we're when she and Jim were boating buddies with my grandmother and grandfather at the Conway Marina. Her nickname was “Cha Cha” and I thought she was one of the smartest and funniest ladies I had ever met. As I grew older she mentored me, sometimes gave me tough love, and supported me when I competed for Miss South Carolina. She was the kind of person who loved fiercely and was firm in her beliefs. I always admired that quality about her. I am blessed to have known her and her wonderful family and we will always keep her in hearts forever.

“ Mrs. Charley was SO wonderful and loving. When it seemed all hope was lost, and everyone we went to said it couldn't be done, she altered an impossibly unalterable mail order prom gown for Olivia. She literally saved the day. Such a determined, kind, don't-tell-me-there's-something-I-can't-do-when-I-set-my-mind-to-it-person. She was a loving person and a joyful giver!
