“ He was my grandfather I had learnt on my way up to P.A. Pittsburgh March 30th that my grampa had passed I was going to a post wedding cocktail at the Lamont for my cousin being that we're all riding up there together I guess they chose this was the perfect time to tell me now reading these obituary commentary prayers and memory I know that it's a bit late but I do have a cherished memory or two of the man who'd step out of his tent to take us to the movies eat some Sonic which my uncle had worked and for a holiday a real money bag full of quarters for the memories that I've got all I had are good ones with him

“ *Steve,
I just read that Mr Charlton passed away this morning. I was just talking about him this past weekend. He was one of my favorite people when I worked at the bank. He always gave me a coin and I still have them all. I am truly sorry for your loss. Miss seeing you and Courtney as well.
Prayers for you and your family.*

“ Charlton and I went to school all twelve grades together and Penny's dad was my band teacher in junior high . He also used to substitute for me in later years when i was teaching. I thought a lot of Bill Miller. I would like to send my deepest respect to you and the family. May God keep you in the hollow of his hand in these trying times. Clarence Smart
