“ Where do I begin. Cheri n I met when our kids were in school together. We became good friends. Such a sweet and funny lady. If we wanted to know anything about somebody, we would just call and one of us would know the answer. She was loved by many, including I. Her great spirit will be missed by so many, but especially her husband, David and son, Aaron. My prayers are with the family as you travel this journey. May God be with you.
