“ I would like to extend my sincere condolences to my dear brothers and sisters in the Conway Congregation. I am one of your sister's from the Beaufort Congregation in North Carolina. As an alternate avenue of service I write scriptural encouragement to families using the on-line obituaries. Imagine how I felt when I read Brother McEachem's obituary! Though I personally didn't know Brother McEachem, our love for Jehovah and our International Brotherhood, connect us in such a special way. I want you to know that you are in my prayers at this difficult time. We know that the hope we have in the resurrection, won't take away the pain, but it does give us comfort and strength. My favorite scripture is at Isaiah 41:11, "Do not be afraid, for I am with you. Do not gaze about, for I am your God. I will fortify you. I will really help you. I will really keep fast hold of you with my right hand of righteousness." Imagine Jehovah's hand grasping yours to give you strength to continue. Brother McEachem endured to the end. Now you have to work hard to continue during these critical days to be there in the new system. Just picture yourself seeing Chester walking up to you and embracing you after his resurrection. Imagine the joy you will feel when you see him again! We are so blessed to know the truth about the dead and the future we have to look forward to. The end is so close; please continue to stay close to Jehovah and your spiritual family. Philia, Suzanne##imported-begin##Suzanne Lombardo##imported-end##

“ My dad was one of a kind -- a truly awesome father and a wonderful man! His charm, wit and charisma won the hearts of many especially mine. I am forever grateful that he taught me, my brother and sister the truth about Jehovah God. I can honestly say that we could always follow, not just what dad told us to do, but what he actually did himself. What a wonderful example of integrity! I pray that we can continue to follow his sterling example of faith and I really look forward to seeing him again real soon in the resurrection. “ I am so grateful to Jehovah God for letting me be able to meet such a wonderful brother. Eventhough I only new him for just a little while, his love for Jehovah and his brothers gave me the strength and encouragement to faithfully care on with my service to Jah Jehovah. My love and prayers are for his beloved wife and family. Love, Your Brother, Jimmy###imported-begin##Jim Fisher II###imported-end##
